W: Good evening. Avanti Business Machines. How can I help you?

M: Hello. This is John Helms, from the computer store.

Could you connect me with Mr. Martin in the accounting department, please.

W: Hold on, sir. I'm afraid he is attending a meeting at the moment.

Shall I take a message?

M: Yes, please. This morning Mr. Martin asked for an estimate of a new PC server and

I would like to check a few details. Could you ask him to contact me as soon as he returns.

M: Maybe you can help me, Liz. I need more people to help with the preparations for the company festival next month.

W: I can ask some staff members in my section. I'm pretty sure some of them can help you during the weekend.

M: It's good for a start, but as a matter of fact, I think I'll need four or five hands daily for about two weeks.

W: Ok. I'll circulate a bulletin board and ask for volunteers. I'm positive. Some would love to participate. Don't worry. Just leave it up to me.
